This yearbook is dedicated with love to the memory of our friends Fred Dunbury, Jr. and Sandi Walker.

Though we drifted apart in distance
I always think of you as being right here

Though we have different interests our experiences are still the same

And though we have many new friends
it is our old and continuous friendship
That means the most to me

ka.lei.do.scope 1: an instrument containing loose bits of colored glass between two flat plates and two plane mirrors so placed that changes of position of the bits of glass are reflected in an endless variety of patterns 2: a variegated changing pattern or scene

The same pattern never appears twice.

Unless captured somehow, the pattern is forever lost.

Class of 1978

Officers: President — David Jarvis, Vice-President — Donald Cabell, Secretary — Susan Gilmetti, Treasurer — Chris Kinder.

Like the kaleidoscope, we are constantly changing.

We will never get the chance to be exactly the same again.

Soon we will be among others, making a totally new formation. We have only the memory of the times we have spent together as a pattern, as our own unique kaleidoscope.

Our dreams are our own.
Our visions, no one else can see.
Our actions, no one else can claim.
What we are, no one else could ever be.

The kaleidoscope goes on.
Forever.

Class Will

We, the class of 1978 of Bourne High School in the County of Barnstable, in the State of Massachusetts, being of fairly sound mind, memory, and understanding, do solemnly make our Last Will and Testament in the manner and form following:

I, Harry Adamson, leave to get away from my little sister.
I, Eric Anderson, leave to play pro-hockey.
I, Karen Areno, leave saying, "Hello, sailor, want to get lucky?"
I, James Baker, leave my Sinclair Scientific to Paul.
I, Debra Barnaby, leave for fashion designing.
I, Pamela Baxter, leave Buzzards Bay.
I, Nancy Beane, leave as Betsy Wong.
I, Diane Beauregard, leave my recorder to the music theory class.
I, Mark Benson, leave square dancing.
I, Kay Bernagozzi, leave all my hair to the skinheads.
I, Steve Bernardo, leave wondering what the inside of the school looks like.
I, Vicki Bernhardt, leave all the boys in Bourne High to my sister.
I, Jeff Bertozzi, leave with no regrets, no excess knowledge and no idea of what prompted me to come here in the first place.
I, Mary Bettley, leave most of "their" cut-downs behind and saying, "Jackie, calm down, are you O.K.?"
I, Gina Bevilacqua, leave Bourne High remembering the day Beth Griffin ran down the halls with a Canalman bag over her head screaming, "Jock hat, Jock hat . . ."
I, David Biagiotti, leave to grow to six feet tall.
I, Judy Bilodeau, leave Mr. McCarthy all my math homework.
I, Kim Bilodeau, leave.
I, Christine Bock, leave saying, "Yeah, right."
I, Phyllis Bradley, leave trying to find my own way with hopes that my sister will find hers after leaving this school.
I, Kenneth Browne, leave Richie Boynton my drum sticks.
I, Cathy Burley, leave my bari sax to Johnnie Hewlett.
I, Joey Burns, leave the last Burns to play football at Bourne High at least for a while.
I, Lori Burns, leave my spot in basketball to Karen Moore.
I, Mark Butler, leave all my books to my sister Janine, all things unfinished to Gerry Houde, and all my friendship to anyone who will take it.
I, Ronald Cabell, leave still saying, "I didn't do it!"
I, Carolyn Cahir, leave never to forget all the great times I had at BHS, especially in my junior year.
I, Bruce Gardoza, leave to join Robert, Ronnie, Henry, Marcie, Valerie, and Eugene.
I, Frank Chase, leave wondering whether or not I will care about the first derivative of  $x^3 + 4x^2 + 9$  being  $3x^2 + 8x$ ,
I, Donald Cabell, leave many girls weeping or that  $\text{NH}_4 + \text{PO}_4 + \text{ONH}_4\text{PO}_4$  is not a balanced equation, in ten years.
I, Renee Chepren, leave the four monitors smoke detectors.
I, John Civilinski, leave my "Parler le Francais" and my athletic ability to Liz Prete.
I, David Cochrane, leave my two-page encyclopedia with pictures and illustrations included.
I, Richard Cohoon, leave to all under-classmen having the ability to follow directions a step by step guide to insulting tall people.
I, Chris Collins, leave Dr. Liz Prete all my wild Drosophila.
I, Theresa Collins, leave to get married in June to Matthew J. Opekum.
I, Cindy Cook, leave Bourne High to go join John.
I, Jacqueline A. Cook, leave my army to anyone who can figure out what the difference between Stanley and Clarence is, and my charter membership in the Scrawny Sheep Club to the Navajo Indians.
I, Janet Corey, leave with Bill.
I, Michael Coulombe, leave my red hair to Mr. Belliveau.
I, Jeff Crabtree, leave my hat to Mr. Southworth.
I, Phyllis Cremonini, leave my "only kidding" jokes to Mr. Frazier and my calm, cool, and collected temper to Mr. Salerno.
I, Tara Cristofori, leave my role as Princess Ingrid to anyone.
I, Lisa Cubellis, leave my deep voice to Mrs. Wood.
I, Cathy Cyr, leave with my brother.
I, Donald Cyr, leave with my sister.
I, Dennis Daly, leave for good.
I, Sandra Dann, leave Mr. Southworth to watch for the buses on snowy days.
I, Carlos DeCastro, leave D. G. a clean locker.
I, Maureen Delancy, leave Bourne High forever — thank God!
I, Jackie Delouche, leave my camera to Mrs. Brown.
I, Janine Delouche, leave the volleyball team to L. Merritt.
I, Brad Decatur, leave for the insurance business.
I, Harriet Dickerson, leave with Raymond.
I, Heidi Dobbins, leave my wardrobe of clothes to Mrs. W. and her many empty closets.
I, Dan Doble, leave my hockey stick to Dave Ariagno.
I, Sharon Donovan, leave my cage in Mr. Southworth's U.S. History to my sister, Donna.
I, Joseph Doucette, leave Bourne High with the satisfaction of having learned something.
I, Donald Duberger, leave our ever smiling, happy-go-lucky librarian, Mrs. Gruner, with a tube of Ultra Brite so she can keep up that never ending smile.
I, Tom Duff, leave to go fishing at the Cape Cod Canal.
I, Mark Ellis, leave Bourne High to get educated.
I, Robert Faber, leave trusting Patty.
I, Jay Farrell, leave still saying, "I'm not guilty!"
I, Eloise Fisher, leave Bourne High School still working at Howard Johnson's.
I, Jeff Fitchett, have left.
I, Anne Forni, leave Bourne High and the town of Bourne to find some excitement.
I, James Fougere, leave to be an engineer.
I, Bob Fountain, leave to play hockey.
I, Bob Fuller, leave my brothers to stay behind to finish school here, and the memory of my being here to my good friends: Jeff, Sean, Torsten, Paul, Skip, Tammy, Kathy, Diane, Glen, Mark and Anne.
I, Ralph Gall, leave with a lot of gall and more coming in.
I, Larry Garbacik, leave Mr. V. to put up with my brother for three more years.
I, Charles Garland, leave my front fender to the metal shop.
I, Anita Gaudet, leave my locker to Polly and whoever else wants to share it with her.
I, Kathy Gavazza, leave never having to hear my favorite roast beef fan, Donna Donovan, teasing remarks about Mr. Agility.
I, Bob Gendron, leave for the beaches and babes in Florida.
I, Susan Gilmetti, leave all the school gossip to my younger sister, Mary.
I, Tracy Glanvill, leave Bourne High with the satisfaction of leaving my sister here for another glorious, fun-filled year.
I, John Gordon, leave for California.
I, Frank Goryl, leave to work at the Buzzards Bay Theater.
I, Alan Gouge, leave always remembering my last three minutes of basketball.
I, Matthew Govina, leave to return "Nevermore."
I, Michael Gratis, leave with Lydia next to me in my airplane, still wondering what all those pretty little lights are for.
I, Karyn Grazulis, leave with a Cheshire cat's smile.
I, Alisa Greenberg, leave wishing the best of luck to other classes.
I, Lisa Greene, leave.
I, Beth Griffin, leave our stash to Mr. B., who never got it in four years.
I, Bruce Hack, leave my statistician's job to any unsuspecting freshman.
I, Michelle Hall, leave dribbling and dancing into JoJo's arms.
I, Michelle Halle, leave for the world of high fashion.
I, Steve Harrington, leave for the bakery.
I, Donna Harrison, leave dramatically, I think?
I, Mike Hickey, leave B.H.S. to Jackie and Lynn.
I, Terri Hockenberry, leave Mr. Johnson my goggles.
I, Dorothy Hodge, leave quietly.
I, Dianne Holt, leave Mrs. Wood's office

Class Will

practice class five minutes earlier than usual.

CROSS COUNTRY

Tri-Captains Mark Hurle, Dan Smith, and Don Cyr.

The Bourne High Cross Country team, in only their third year of existence, experienced their best season ever with a 5-1 conference record (6-3 overall) under Coach Mike Bigelow. That was good for second place during the regular season, and they finished third in the conference meet. They were led by All-Conference runners Dan Smith (second in the conference meet, 26th in the state) and Mark Hurle (4th in the conference meet, 25th in the state). It was the second time for Hurle, a senior, and the first time for Smith, a junior. They were ably backed by senior Don Cyr, juniors Cliff Moore, John Gaffney, and Shaun Ellis, sophomores Mark McMahon, Kevin Fuller, Peter Garland, and Jeff Reidy, and freshman Roger Arnold, while the girls were led by Amy Regan. All runners will be back except for Hurle and Cyr, so the tradition of fine cross country teams at Bourne High should continue.

L to R, Kneeling: L. Innis, D. Duberger, M. Hurle, D. Smith, D. Cyr, K. Dalton, B. Collins.
Standing: Coach Bigelow, R. Moroge, R. Arnold, J. Reidy, D. Henzie, M. McMahon, M. Hayes, S. Ellis, K. Fuller, M. Hallam, G. Belliveau.

Girls' Volleyball, coached by Miss Judy Cox, was the newest sport added to Bourne's schedule. The season was based upon learning the skills, knowledge, and concepts of the game. Both the varsity and the J. V. managed to win one game each. Co-Captain Janine Delouche leaves with five other seniors. However, Co-Captain Karen Moore remains with the skills to lead next year's team on to victory.

Volleyball

Field Hockey

Kneeling: M. Hall, M. Joyce, L. Ritvo, C. Collins, T. Marble, L. LaFlamme. Standing: Coach Lindberg, P. Purdy, J. Norton, S. Gilmetti, R. Sylvester, C. Fisher, L. Perani, T. McNamara, C. Scarano.

Kneeling: T. Sylvester, L. Mahoney, D. Scarano, P. Gerry, H. Joyce, K. Coggeshall. Standing: M. Bright, C. Gibbons, E. Boeinga, D. Chepren, B. Cook, C. McGillicuddy, C. Sala, Coach Lindberg.

Although the record may not show it, this year's field hockey team had a fine season. With many hard fought losses, the team spirit still survived. J.V. coach Maureen Kearney did an excellent job with the young jayvees, molding them from mainly inexperienced newcomers to a group of sharp stickhandlers. For the varsity, the high point of the season was the day they held Barnstable to a tie in a battle that left Barnstable totally frustrated and Bourne exhilarated. With five seniors leaving, next year proves to be a challenge, but as always, Bourne will rise to meet it with determination.

Seniors and Coach: Miss Lindberg, Michelle Hall, Marie Joyce, Tracy Marble, Lee Ritvo, Chris Collins

Football

Kneeling: K. Young, B. Cardoza, J. Fougere, J. O'Keefe, C. Garland, S. Kearney, J. Burns, T. Norton, S. Harrington, S. Tucy, D. Doble, M. Hickey, K. Songer, G. Sala. 1st Row: Coach Desaulniers, Coach Desautels, J. Brown, C. Horman, J. Baugh, M. Mailloux, D. Simski, T. Norton, D. May, E. Simmons, J. Sweeney, K. McMahon, B. Kearney, Linhares, D. Melcher, J. McKenna. 2nd Row: Coach Angelo, Coach Czarnetzki, Coach Rannnie, D. McClung, T. Whalen, E. Swardstrom, J. Mahoney, B. May, D. Lizienski, S. Wetherell, K. McCarthy, T. Williams, Trainer J. Speers. 3rd Row: J. Lawrence, G. Martinez, C. Regan, N. Bevilacqua, K. Diefenbach, J. Holbert.

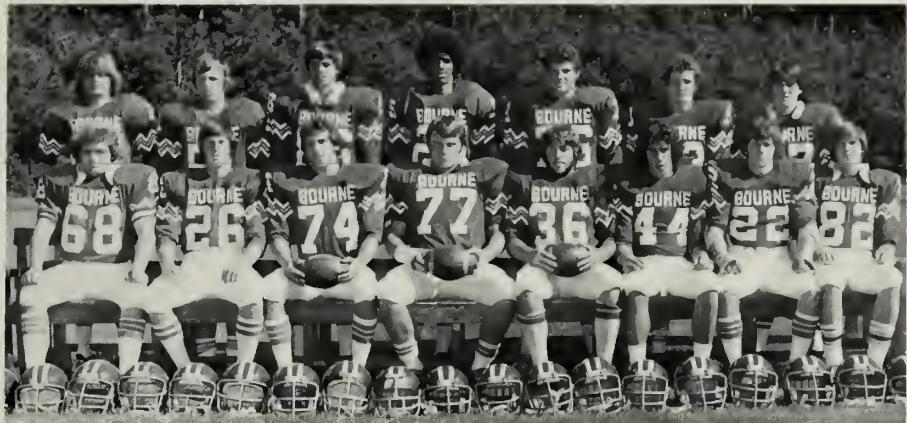

It was the year that we had all dreamed of since we were freshmen. Ever since 1974 when we entered Bourne High we had hoped for a winning season and, more importantly, a win on Thanksgiving over Wareham. This year's team was surely the one to do it! With the infamous "Mung Zoo" leading the way, the 1977 Canalmen not only amassed a 6-4 record, but also got a piece of the Division crown as well. Furthermore, we all know what happened on Turkey Day! In one of the season's most exciting contests, the Purple Wave rolled over the Wareham Vikings 8-4. It was a most successful season for all concerned. The J.V. and freshman teams also did extremely well, and show a lot of promising talent for the years to come. Despite the fact that many senior veterans will be missing, next year's team under Head Coach Bob Desaulniers should prove to be another championship team. Congratulations!

Defensive Team: Front: S. Kearney, J. O'Keefe, G. Martinez, G. Sala, J. Burns, D. Doble. Back: J. Fougere, K. McMahon, N. Bevilacqua, S. Harrington, T. Norton, T. Norton, K. Diefenbach, S. Tucy, C. Regan.

Offensive Team: (L to R) D. Melcher, D. McClung, J. Burns, J. O'Keefe, S. Tucy, M. Hickey, D. May, E. Walker, T. Norton, S. Kearney, C. Garland, J. Fougere, S. Wetherell.

Boys' Basketball

L to R, Kneeling: Tri-Captains, Tom Norton, Jeff Crabtree, and Bill Simmons. Standing: Coach Mark Southworth, T. Norton, T. Moore, B. Gendron, D. McClung, T. Williams, J. Jaworski, and Manager D. Day.

The 1977-78 Bourne High Canalmen Basketball Team supplied its loyal rooters with many thrills, as they had their best record in years. The season started with four non-conference wins including a thrilling OT victory at Nauset. Led by Senior Tri-Captains Bill Simmons, Jeff Crabtree, and Tom Norton, the team started the conference season with a shot at the title. Included in the conference season were many exciting games. Heartbreaking losses to Falmouth and Diman Voke (twice) dashed the hopes for a conference title. But the dramatic double OT victory against Falmouth and the come-from-behind win over Dighton-Rehoboth (both at home) made up for any disappointments.

The Canalmen will suffer from the loss of seven seniors including the Tri-Captains plus Bob Gendron, Jim Jaworski, Theo Moore, and Bruce Cardoza. Coach Mark Southworth can expect a fine team led by Tracy Williams, Dan McClung, Tim Norton and the many fine JV's developed by Coach Len Desautels.

L to R: Coach Len Desautels, B. Kearney, S. Wetherell, M. McMahon, R. Ziembra, F. Graf, B. McCarthy, and N. Bevilaqua.

Girls' Basketball

L to R, Kneeling: L. Prete, J. Cobb, C. Fisher, D. Allen, L. McMahon, P. Cremonini. Standing: Coach Gendron, L. Bradley, L. Smolinsky, L. Carpenter, K. Breault, S. Schaeffer, J. Fougere.

The Bourne Girls' Basketball team is well on its way to its fifth straight division championship. The varsity stands currently at 9-2, and lead their league after sound defeats of D-Y, Falmouth, and new league member Fairhaven. Even with seniors Lori Burns, Lee Ritvo, Kathie LeBrun, and Phyllis Cremonini leaving, next year's team should prove to be a strong one, as the J.V. team coached by Bruce Gendron has amassed a perfect record of 14-0. This is largely due to the talent of the freshman team members. All in all, the future looks very bright.

Hockey

Again this year, Bourne High's hockey team has fared extremely well against all competitors. With Eric Anderson and Peter Hathaway in goal, opposing shooters find it difficult to find the net. This is Coach Gerry Dineen's second year with the club, and although he is losing nine seniors, he should continue to come up with winning hockey teams. Seniors Jim Manamon, Eric Anderson, Bob Fountain, Bill Puetz, Jay Farrell, Bill Murray, Mike Sorenti, Mike Hickey, and Dan Doble will be missed. The J.V. team, though on a shorter schedule, has also done well this year, and many of the young players will move up next season.

Tri-Captains Jim Manamon, Eric Anderson, and Bob Fountain.

Drill Team

This year's Majorette Squad has had a busy fall, with football twirling and parades being the major function. The tournament season should prove to be a fruitful one, as the relatively young squad has spent many hours of hard work with Mrs. Dorothy Melvin.

Kneeling: Co-Captain Margie Griffith, Mrs. Melvin, Co-Captain Heidi Dobbins. Standing: A. Chiodo, L. McMahon, T. Ziemba, M. Loud, P. Jackson, A. Landers, D. Uitti, D. Newcombe, S. Burns, A. Richter.

This year not only did we have the spirit of the Football and Basketball Cheerleaders, but also J.V. Basketball and Hockey Cheerleaders as well. Barb Smart captained the football cheerleaders, whose advisor was Mrs. Loring, while Tracy Marble captained the basketball cheerleaders, Lisa Puetz captained the hockey cheerleaders with Mrs. Carey, and Theresa Pierce led the J.V. cheerleaders with the help of Kay Alden and Mrs. Sala.

The Orchestra is rapidly gaining popularity at Bourne. It has grown from a few string players to a small-sized, full scale orchestra because of the hard work of director Bonnie Bearse.

The Math Team, in its second year, hasn't placed very high in the standings, but its members enjoy the keen edge of mathematical competition with other "geniuses." The meets consist of five rounds of problems in the areas of general math, algebra one, geometry, algebra two, and trigonometry. The final round is a team question worth ten points. Bourne is ahead of arch-rival Wareham, and should continue to creep up in the league standings. Mr. Cook is the advisor.

Due to unfortunate circumstances, the Debating Team, under the direction of Mr. Gregory, has had very little competition this past year. The topic for debate is open this year, so the debators have to be prepared to give information accurately on any subject. This takes an extra quick mind as well as a fluency in speech to remain the successful force that they have been. So far they have had no problem.

The Future Homemakers of America have had a busy year, with several dinners for faculty members and selling refreshments at each of the home football games. Several of the girls have also attended state FHA meetings. Mrs. King serves ably as the advisor. Below: Secretary Manuela Kitterman, President Irene Tanner, Vice-President of Recreation, Sue Robbins, Parliamentarian Alisa Greenberg, Photographer Tracy Glanvill.

The Code Club has had a very successful year once again. Miss Rice has provided the guidance as the members sponsored the first dance of the year, Autumn. The Homecoming Dance, another yearly event put on by the Code Club, was well attended, and enjoyed by all in attendance. Future plans include a party for the orphans at St. Mary's and the yearly induction dinner.

The Athletic Association with Mr. Hopwood can be seen at every basketball, football, and hockey game selling tickets and programs. This group of hard workers has done an exceptionally fine job throughout the year, and deserves a lot of credit.

The newly formed Mountain Climbing Club with advisor Miss Brown has stirred quite a bit of interest in the student body. On good weekends in the spring and fall they can be found scaling the treacherous slopes in New England. Already conquered is New Hampshire's Mt. Monadnock, and plans are being made for a hike on Mt. Washington.

The Student Advisory Council has been represented at the district meetings in Lakeville by Ted Hoppe, a senior who is extremely interested in the rights of students. Mr. Robert Gray is the advisor for these civic-minded students. The freshman class officers were elected in February. They are: President Terri Sylvester, Vice-President Laurie Bradley, Secretary Lynne Taylor, and Treasurer Beth Denmark.

Student Government

This year we have been fortunate to have with us three foreign students as part of the student body. They have come here through the Youth for Understanding program, and will remain in the United States until some time this summer.

Luis Pereira Lopes Filho, better known as Lou, comes to us from Sao Carlos, Brazil. He has stayed with the Tomlinson family in Sagamore Beach. Luis likes hunting game. He also enjoys swimming, soccer, and volleyball. His favorite subject here is math. After having seen snow for the first time, Luis has decided that he likes the winters up here.

Fridtjof Graf, or Fred as we Americans say, is from the town of Langenfeld, West Germany. Fred has done a lot of traveling here, as he has stayed with that Swardstrom family in Pocasset as well as the Tomlinsons in Sagamore Beach. He has relatives in New York and California, and hopes to make a trip to the West Coast before returning to Langenfeld. Fred enjoys sports, especially soccer, volleyball, and basketball, and often goes kayaking with his brother. He has played basketball with the high school team. Fred likes the U.S., and hopes to return here in three years when he has finished his schooling.

Juan Zapatil Pereira de Araujo, called more simply Juan, comes from Brasilia D. F. in Brazil. He is staying at the home of the Robert Grays in Sagamore. Juan likes parties, biking, and fishing. He also has enjoyed having snow on the ground. For exercise he finds volleyball, soccer, and running to be his strong points, and he plans to go out for track in the spring. Juan's favorite subject is mechanical drawing, and he, too, finds the people very friendly.

Now that the final page is complete, there are several people who deserve my gratitude. First, I'd like to thank Mr. Dan Taylor, my adviser, who has kept the appointment schedule clean and given me all his encouragement, & Mr. Arnold Lohmann, the rep from Taylor Publishing Company, for making sure every deadline is made and for his fantastic idea. Also I'd like to thank the photograph co's particularly Mr. Stanley Egan, whose pictures have made the yearbook what it is. Ms. Chris Cooper, Garland, took many fine football pictures, and let us use them for our Action page. Other photographers include Mr. Shandor, Bryan Brown, Jackie DeLanchie, Brakh Sharp, and Karen Ward.

Many thanks to Mrs. Miller for her excellent photography on the first sixteen pages, and also for the assistance she and Mrs. Beale gave me in getting those pages. Other I'd like to give special thanks to for editing help are Linda Morrison, Sue Fitter, and Sharon Donovan.

Congratulations to Brad Decatur, Carolyn Cahir, and Bobe Monast for making this year's yearbook one of the most successful ever! Without their hard work and energy, we could never have had the support that we did, get from this year's volunteers.

I'd like also to thank my mother, sisters, brother, and Uncle Monroe for the help in helping out when we need. Phyllis Bradley for her great help with jobs. Also, special thanks to Jerry Baumhoff, Mark Miller, Linda, Vicki, Phyllis Preminski, and Sharon Donovan for their help.

My best wishes to all who have been involved in the club, & I support them in their efforts.

Finally, to Sarina Monast my Associate Editor, a big THANK YOU for your work. Without her help, this yearbook would have been impossible.

To all of you in my class, Good Luck! I hope that when you look through this yearbook, it brings back good memories. Jackie Cook, Editor

Each day the errands that are necessary to keep the school in operation are done by the Main Office and Guidance Office Workers.

A windy, overcast day — SAT's in the morning — determination to beat the Case Cardinals — an upset loss — anticipation of the dance — half-time activities — excited fans — all these things made up the Homecoming Football Game on November 5, 1977.

“I Need You”

This year the students at Bourne High were treated to some excellent assemblies. Along with the traditional Pep Rallies, several guest entertainers appeared. First came The Boor, put on by two very talented Thespians. Then came Ted Raub, master magician, whose unusual humor and quick sleights of hand captivated the student body. Basketball wizard Crazy George dazzled everyone with his exceptional ball handling after the annual Faculty Basketball Game. On the educational side, we had former CIA agent Bruce Taylor Odell speak on his experience in the international field of politics. All in all it was a very good year for entertainment at BHS.
